Tell Me Again

TELL me again the story
That you told when we both were young!
You were my prince in play,
A prince with a golden tablet,
And the touch of your hand was thrilling.
The fact that you lived was joy—
But I was only a girl then, dear,
And you were only a boy.

Tell me, the way you told me,
When our love was the song of spring!
Hold me, as you would hold me
When our love was a sacred trust,
Let the silver that's in your hair, tell me,
Let it, as it used to be,
When I was new to existence
And you were so great and tall.

How by the fireside sitting,
As the pictures in Glories run by, ***
Sweet be the moments fitting
And children, just you and I
For the love of our love is richer,
And yet—I would feel the joy
Of the love that was only a girl, dear,
For her prince, who was only a boy.

—Henry Edward Warner, in the Richmond Times Dispatch.

Your Christmas Room

By MARTHA B. THOMAS

(c) 1922 Western Newspaper Union

may summon by your thoughts?
Glad wishes for friends are the green wreaths we may hang in the windows of our Christmas room.

Hopes for another year are the candles we light on the table.

New plums are the fruit to deck the board, and very likely there will be a guest or so to share them.

Thus of the Fire of Purpose you may light on your hearth!

Think of the glow and warmth it will cast over you!

Think of the castles and dreams you crowded out of your heart because you were too busy; the fine, adventurous ones; the funny ones you have laughed over all to yourself; the shy ones you would not reveal to a soul at any price. Call them all back and see what a splendid set of inspirations they are. You'll feel like a new person.

And don't forget to put a present on the Tree of Faith for yourself; something you've wanted all your life; if you can't have it this year, waiting will make it more precious; and if you can (oh, think of that!) you'll be all the better prepared.

Do spend a little time in your Christmas room!

Johnson chocolates in 1/2 lb. to 2 lb. boxes.

Great Savers.

How our mothers and grandmothers would have appreciated the wonderfully efficient electrical appliances of the present day. Probably most of all the electric washer and ironer, because if the proper machines are selected, they represent the greatest economy. Not only do they save money, time and back-breaking drudgery, but the very clothes themselves.

The Christmas Dolly

OLD SANTA CLAUS

Well be here, and will make his headquarters at our store. Toys and Joys and dolls and tops, drums and horns, and 101 other things that Old Santa always carries.

If you come to town Xmas week and don't come to our store you will miss seeing Santa Claus.
